

Welcome To The Circus Nebula - Part I

He spent his life
a silent sentinel
for all to fear
and no one dare go near

He takes in all he sees nothin' escape his rage
and when he strike
he strike for right

-- chorus --

Welcome to the circus nebula
Welcome to your horror show

A day will come you wil be drawn and come up and on a creeping mass of steel

Don't think to escape
just pray for your face holds no disgrace
for the deadly "ace"

-- chorus --

Welcome to your horror show
